

Fortunes in a Single Morning.

A writer in London Sketch says:—"If Aladdin were to come among us now, we should not think much of him and his wonderful lamp. He raised a palace in a single night. Well, fortunes are made in South African shares in a single morning, and without the aid of a 'djinn.' Mr. Barnato toted up a million or so before lunch. Two Irish patriots, who started in West Australian speculation a few months ago with six hundred pounds, are now worth six hundred thousand. A well-known black-and-white artist, who went out to Australia merely to draw pictures, dabbled in 'calls' and 'options' on the steamer, and found himself the possessor of ten thousand pounds. Who would make pictures if he could be sure of such a stroke of finance? I expect Fleet-street to rise like one man, and say, 'No more paragraphs! no more "Small Talk"! We are off to the Antipodes to make millions!' When I think that, instead of turning this column, I might be a millionaire, I am amazed at my devotion to journalism."

How to Get Rid of Fleas.

One of the halls at Cornell University became infested by fleas; one of the professors devised the following plan of getting rid of them: The negro janitor was furnished with a pair of rubber boots, on which were tied sheets of fly-paper, with the sticky side outward, right up the leg. The janitor was then made to patrol the floor of the hall for several hours a day. The result pleased everybody, and especially the professor. The sheets of fly-paper soon became black with fleas and had to be changed at intervals and the building was almost completely rid of the pest.

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND
RESTORED MRS. DARROW
TO HEALTH AND HAPPINESS.

This is the Medicine That Makes People Well!

MRS. AUG. DARROW.

WELLS, RICHARDSON & Co.,
Gentlemen:—I was very much run down, had no appetite at all, was very nervous, had no sleep night or day; to sum it all up, I WAS PERFECTLY WRETCHED. But thanks to Paine's Celery Compound I can now eat and sleep and work just as well as I could before I was taken sick. When I commenced taking the Compound I weighed 136 pounds; I now weigh 168 pounds and do all the work for my family of five. I have recommended the Compound to three families already and they are very much pleased with it. I am now taking my fifth bottle, and would RECOMMEND IT TO ALL WHO ARE SUFFERING WITH STOMACH TROUBLE OR NERVOUS TROUBLE.
Yours respectfully,
MRS. AUG. DARROW.
